College Notes

SCOLA NOSTRA.

The weather has been rather severe for some time and a few students have been reported as "froze out" but on an average the attendance has been better than it has been expected.

John and Milas North furnished us with good fires and our rooms were quite comfortable.

The public, or free school ends this week. It has been about a month longer than usual this term and the attendance has been above the average.

The people of this town are taking more and more interest along educational lines, and there is prospect that a large per cent of them will have their children continue in school throughout the term.

Brother Pafford visited our school last Monday morning and made us a very interesting and instructive talk. Thanks.

The Francis Willard Literary Society met last Thursday afternoon, the president being absent her place was filled by the vice president, Miss Eunice Rackley.

The following Program was rendered.

Song:—Prayer;—answer roll call with verse from the Bible.

Recitation by Miss Robinson. Reading, by Miss Edith Ranck. Piano Solo by Miss Pearl Booth. On account of the severe weather several members were absent.

The David Crockett Literary Society met last Friday afternoon. The Program consisted of the following:

Music:—Prayer: Quotations from Bryant in response to roll call.

Debate: "Resolve that the Southern States had a right to secede." (Aff.) Conrad Ellingboe, and Noble Freeman.

(Neg.) Ingram Sowell and Frank Pollock.

Recitation.—Parks Stockard. Report of Critic.

The debate was hotly contested and was one of the best the society has had for some time; it was decided by the judges in favor of the affirmative by a vote of two to one.

On an average the attendance at the Literary Societies has been good, but a few of our young people, we are sorry to report, are depriving themselves of the benefits that they might be receiving from this work.

We are all put in this world for a purpose. Now let us all strive to accomplish that purpose and our lives will be all the happier on that account.

Perfect Confidence.

When there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Freeman Bros.

M

We wish the bad weather would "get up at get."

For in our houses we are kept "shet"

Our bodies are getting very thin, And very near "froze," we all have been

The cattle and horses are feeling it too,

If it doesn't change soon, we'll have but a few

Instead of many as we have had, And you'll agree with me that that will be bad.

The turkeys and chickens are almost froze

From the tops of their heads down to their toes.

Some cream and cake, has been on the bill of fare,

To have any more I do not care, Not even on the fourth of July, Will I one spoon full of it try.

The gentle Spring I long to see, The birds all singing merrily;

The peach and apple trees in bloom

O no more Winter with your gloom.

The wood and coal bills all are dropped

And we in our pockets will not be "wropped"

But sing "Good old summer time" till the fall,

And never tire of hearing it at all.

We'll go to the orchard fruit to gather

In the very warmest of weather, And we'll never murmur or complain,

About the warmer sunshine or the rain.

But "canning up" our fruit we'll be

If the thermometer in the shade is 103

A song of thankfulness we will be humming

While the perspiration down our face is running

"Feb. 1905," with its sleet and snow.

Will be as far back as We'll have to go

To make us feel thankful it is warm weather

So lets be ready to praise together.

On Jan. 29, Mr. Bruce Killen and Miss Velma Hall were married at the home of the bride, only a few relatives being present to witness the ceremony. Immediately after congratulations and the bridal party left for Green Hill Ala., where a reception was given them. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Killen a long and prosperous life.

Mr. Henry Lackey is studying Telegraphy with our agent, W. H. Stutts.

Ben Specker is seen in our town once in a while.

Mr. King is very sick at his home near this place.

W. H. Phillips is much improved in health we are glad to

When you Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. C. P. Church Items.

CHURCH REPORTER.

Last week's calendar contained two days which commemorate important events, dear to the heart of every loyal "Cumberland Presbyterian." February 4th was the ninety-fifth anniversary of the organization of our beloved church while February 2nd is the national day of the great Christian Endeavor movement, and its twenty-fourth milestone. "Our denomination has had a mission which it has nobly performed, and historians of the future will not fail to see the effect of the existence and the testimony of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church upon the religious movements of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Both of these organizations had small and insignificant beginnings and both have contributed in large measure to bring about two things of which the Christian world stood greatly in need. Emphasis upon essentials in doctrine and fellowship in service." We should think our church the best church in the world for us. What is more commendable than denominational loyalty? What a wide range of thought has imbued led in the beautiful word "loyalty." It is a word full of poetry and sentiment, and embraces also the stronger virtues. It is a tie that has always the tendency for the uplifting and betterment of man.

DEATHS.

Bessie Kelly departed this life Feb. 1st 1905 age three years, ten months, and thirteen days. Thus in the infinite wisdom of God, He gave her the gift of "what I do now thou knowest not, but thou shalt know hereafter." Bereaved parents heaven has become real to you, for Bessie is abiding there. "Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on his gentle breast" where its angel face doth always behold the face of our father in heaven, and its infant voice shall join the elder spirits in praising redeeming love.

Why then should we weep for the precious babe, she has filled her mission, for the Lord has lent her to you for a while, "but the Lord now hath need of her." The memories that attend its life are sweet, fragrant, and enduring. We praise God for all of the pleasant memories, fragrant and eternal about that little one gone up to the house on high. Repine not that the brightest die first and God calls the loveliest, for remember,

"On that great cloister's stillness and seclusion By guardian angels led, Safe from temptation safe from sins pollutions, She lives whom we call Dead."

Burdened and stricken ones cast all of your care on him who ask in tender tones "Why weepest thou?" Think of your babe among the angels radiantly and lovely. Gather up the mutilated doll and the little shoes and other things that were her's in this life and put them away, she has no need of them now for Jesus has given her the robe of righteousness and placed in her hands a harp of a thousand strings and her voice has been attuned to sing with the angel choir.

Then in the midst of these sweet visions, let us remember amidst all of our sorrow, she is gone but not forgotten. "It is well with the child" "She is not dead the child of our affections. But gone unto that school. Where she no longer needs our poor protection. And Christ himself doth rule." A Friend.

The death angel has again visited our community and claimed for its victim Hallie Tittsworth. She was an industrious young lady and loved by all who knew her. She had something like consumption. She was sick for quite a while and about two weeks ago she was taken bad and died Saturday week. Her remains were interred in Scott's Hill cemetery. She left a loving mother and father, and several brothers and sisters to mourn her loss. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones. She was about 18 years of age, just entering into womanhood. She was a very sincere friend of mine and was my school mate for two or three years. She is waiting on the other shore now to meet her loved ones.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant around our home Which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his love had given And though the body moulders here; The soul is safe in Heaven. A Friend.

On Tuesday morning of the 31 Inst. the angel of death floated over our midst and claimed for its choice little Bessie Kelly, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Early Kelly. Had she lived until March she would have reached her fourth year. Her suffering was long and severe but she bore it all with patience. Father mother and friends gave her the best of care, prayed and longingly hoped for her recovery, but to no avail, as God deemed it best to call her home. We although with our hearts broken with sorrow hope to submit to his call. Grieve not Father and mother over the loss of your dear child, but rejoice to know that she is enjoying the blessings of a better world, where she will have no more pains to bear. Jesus says, suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

May God in his infinite goodness comfort and console the heart broken father and mother during so trying a time.

DEATHS.

In memory of Mrs. Myrtle Durham Luttrell, who departed this life, December 16, 1904. Again the pure and beautiful, Has passed from mortal sight, And entered through the pearly gates And joined the Saints of light. We could not see with finite eyes Across the swelling tide Or note the joy her presence gave Those on the other side. In youths fair morn her life Sun Set Death's shadow came a pace, But mid the darkness came the power Of Gods sustaining grace. While her chair is vacant here Her voice now hushed in death And all of mortal fondly loved Now gone with fleeting breath. 'Tis sorrow here but joy above A ransom'd Soul gone home Is safely housed in heavens retreat Where partings never come. We mourn not then devoid of hope She's only gone before We'll meet her through Gods Sovereign grace On Canaan's blissful shore. By Mrs. M. J. Boggus.

The Grim Reaper has claimed for its victim, the beautiful spirit of Mrs. R. T. Shields, of Henryville. Before her marriage, a year ago, she was Miss Bertie Viets, a devoted Christian girl, whose life was given to the service of the God, Who has now taken her to a place at His right hand. The young husband has our deepest sympathy in his irreparable loss.

News has reached us that that gallant, intrepid, devoted old Kentucky veteran, Capt. W. H. Skillman, has surrendered, at last, to humanity's grim, implacable foe—Death. He died at his home in Henryville, on Sunday last. Thus the County loses a brave true man. May the chivalric old champion find rest, at last from the trials and turnouts, that beset all earthly life.
